

Centre for Christian Missions

IMPACT STORY

Osward Mwewa

OSWARD MWEWA, a gifted evangelist, is passionate that everyone, everywhere hears the gospel of God. A former drunkard & small businessman, Osward now spends all of his time preaching the gospel. He rises at 3:30 every morning to read 10 chapters in his Bible before leaving his home at 5:30 a.m. to share Christ in different communities. With a convincing voice, a bullhorn or a sound system, Osward preaches in public buses, busy marketplaces, clinics & hospitals, jails & prisons, in bars and door-to-door to any and all who will listen. Three years after becoming a Christian, Osward began theological studies at CCM. "Studying at CCM has helped me to identify my calling as an evangelist", says Osward, "and to know and preach the biblical gospel. There is so much false teaching today. I want to preach the true gospel." Osward planted a church in Mulundu, a town in rural Zambia dominated by witchcraft. Walking long distances to reach remote villages, he tirelessly sat with sinners, telling them of God's love in Christ. Today Osward has reached thousands of people with the gospel and inspired countless numbers of Christians with his passion to reach the lost for Christ!