

Centre for Christian Missions

IMPACT STORY

David Simpokolwe

DAVID SIMPOKOLWE comes from a line of pioneer missionaries. Both his father and grandfather served Christ as missionaries and David followed in their footsteps. After graduating from CCM, David launched Tribals for Christ, an outreach to least-reached peoples on the Zambia-Tanzania border. With the heart of a pioneer, David evangelizes tribals through the Jesus film & distributes audio-Bibles to the illiterate; he plants churches & disciples missionaries; hosts seminars & conferences to sensitize & mobilize the church in missions; provides life-skills to widows & cares for orphans. "Much of the information I share in churches, Bible colleges and conferences", says David, "came from my studies at CCM". David understands his responsibility to take the gospel to the unreached & works tirelessly to that end.